GLOOMY ASPECT OF AFFAIRS AT WINCHESTER, A RAID FROM JACKSON EX

A Great Pattle Anticipated within Week.

REMOVAL OF STORES. dre, de, de.

New York, 17th. The Harper's Ferry correspondent of the Tribune, under date of the 15th, states fears are entertained that we shall soon have trouble. In consequence of the threatening appearance of mat-ters at Winehester the stores and all other valuables of the Army have been safely removed here. It is reported here that our pickets were drawn in below Winohester last night. In anticipation of danger the telegraph office at that place had been removed a mile from town, near the fertifications.

The friends of the South here and at Martinsburg are acting as if they had heard good news, and express confidence that the Rebels will make a raid into the Valley as far as Winchester before many days. There seems to be a gen eral impression that Winch eater will be the scene of a fierca battle before a week. It is rumored that Jackson with half the large army which he took to Richmond so suddenly, has returned and been reinforced by numerous guerilla bands.

During the past ten days our vast depots of supplies at New Creek, Mar-tinsburg and other places have been broken up and the stores removed elsewhere.

&c., &c., &c. The Times army correspondent, un-der date of the 15th, states that the po-sition of the main body of the army near Harrison's landing remains unchanged.

Yesterday a squadron of the 6th, U. S. Cavalry went a mile beyond the pickets for the purpose of preventing the surprise of a latigue party.

The enemys videttes were discovered half a mile in advance. For upwards of two bours the two parties sat quietly on their barses watching each other until the enemy became exceedingly restless and showed signs of hostility when the sixth allowed him to advance a few yards, and then gave shim a volley from their carbines. A few shots were fired in teturn by the rebels on which they turned about and galloped off. No one was injured on our eight off. No one was injured on our eight of the enemy lost three wounded and ones taken prisoner. At night the pickets were posted on the line occupied by the cavalry, consequently our pickets advanced one mile. The main force of the rebels is not less than filteen miles from our exterior line, which would locate them on the Trent and come in the cast and the latter on the cast side of the Chickshominy.

Our new ruse of operations will lead to our approaching Richmond from another quarter than that of Mechanicavillis or Esten, and health and trength are personantly restored.

The people at the north are as competent as myself to judge of what is required to hasten forward the auspicious moment. Give us reinforcements and we mill give you Richmond.
